"TT - EXTRA"

Dear Friends,

January 8th, 2020

New Year's greetings and blessings to all of you!

For us it has been a sudden plunge into 2020!

Sunday, 29th December following our morning service, we had a call from a local Funeral Director asking us if we would perform a burial service. On New Year's Day, we met the bereaved family to arrange the funeral. They told us about the sudden death of the 61-year old husband and father. He had died from internal bleeding.

The preparation talks with the widow and the children were very sincere and friendly...

We were able to talk openly about our faith in the Lord JESUS!

January 3rd, when we came back from the burial service we needed to warm ourselves up with a vegetable soup with ginger! Only on this day there was a thick freezing fog throughout our region; the temperature was minus 3° – felt more like minus 10° – bitterly cold!

About 200 mourners came to the service.

After the man's life story had been given, Hans-Georg was then able to speak on "Our earthly House" referring to 2 Cor. 5:1 (KJV), and also give the congregation a clear invitation to come to JESUS: "Everything depends on HIM!"

The listeners also had the opportunity to pray a prayer of commitment in their hearts.

Following our WhatsApp message (sent out when we first heard about the burial), your involvement really amazed us!

We really felt your support in prayer!

The widow, Martina, who has cancer and some of the others, expressed their gratitude.

Please continue to pray for her and her children who are still in a state of shock...

Can we also commend our dear old Mother Ludwig to you for your prayers?

After seven different moves in the last five weeks, between two care homes and times spent in hospital for operations, she is completely bewildered...

THANK YOU so much for your support and friendship!

We would be glad to have your prayer requests as well! Please get in touch...

Also: Please let us know if you would like to receive our WhatsApp-messages!

Walking in HIS grace,

Hans-Georg & Margret
